

Subpart A - General

WV403.1

WV403.1 Coverage

The State Conservationist, State Administrative Officer, and Personnel Officer, or others acting in the above positions, may exercise any employment authority in West Virginia.

In some cases, the Soil Conservation Service (SCS) receives gratuitous benefits from nonfederal sources; i.e., work study participants. SCS will generally provide office space or other accommodations for the individual in return for personal services. Before any gratuitous services may be accepted by SCS, an agreement must be entered into in accordance with General Manual Title 120, Part 401.

WV403-1(1)